

The Executive Scientific Advisory Board (ESAB) is a seven-member subset of the Scientific Advisory Board (SAB) that, in addition to customary SAB duties, provides counsel to the Foundation on overarching strategic and programmatic matters several times per year. ESAB membership rotates regularly, on two-year terms, ensuring that a range of voices and opinions play a role in setting the Foundation's strategic direction.